You can also read any mail received (using our internal CheMailTM system) and reply to people.
2. Executive Membership (US$100 / year) lets you do the following:
 - Proactively contact other members, without limitation (no need to link to people, buy mail credits or request introductions). You can send unlimited numbers of internal mails, which can contain hyperlinks. You can also selectively share your CV/Resume with people if you wish.
 - Content and communication is effectively controlled via a 5-strike reporting system which ensures the quality of communication remains high.
 - You can also post unlimited items on the Club Discussion section, to promote your business, news, ideas or opinions. This is moderated. You can post text, hyperlinks and up to 3 large images, plus an attachment per feature. Other Executive members can then post their comments to which you are alerted.
