

Graduate Assistant (Music) - INFORMATION PACK

The School

Thank you for your interest in Tudor Hall. Tudor Hall is an independent boarding and day school of approximately 330 girls, of whom 75% are full boarders. The school is situated in parkland surroundings approximately one mile outside Banbury.

Tudor Hall is a successful school in many different ways – academically excellent from a broad intake with high levels of achievement in all areas of school life including art, drama, music and sport. We are progressive and outward looking in our vision for the school. The size of the school allows us to give our girls an individual education and provide the best possible platform for the next phase of their lives. The school has been well resourced over recent years and departments generally have their own teaching space and, within reason, whatever resources they need for teaching the curriculum.

Entry into the school occurs at 11+, 13+ and 16+. The school is selective, but strengths beyond the classroom are valued and consequently there is a range of ability in each year group. The ethos of the school is to foster the strengths of the individual, both in and out of the classroom, as is evident by the excellent examination results – over the last three years (2017–19) the girls have achieved 75.5% A*–B grades at A Level and 61.6% A*–A / 9–7 grades at GCSE with 96.5% achieving A*–C / 9–4.

Carrdus School was purchased by Tudor Hall in 2011. It is an independent day school for girls, aged 3–11 years old, and pre-prep boys. Highly respected in the locality, it has a long record of academic success coupled with outstanding pastoral care. The School is situated just outside Banbury in a rural setting. It has approximately 110 pupils, single class entry and a staff of 30.

Both schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure & Barring Service.

Music within the curriculum

KS3

During school years 7, 8 and 9, girls have 70 minutes of class music lessons each week. Each lesson includes listening and appraising music in a variety of genres, composing pieces in various styles, and performing solos and ensembles in classroom concerts and practical sessions. There is much focus on developing the musician as a whole, with emphasis on the importance of musical theory and how music can reflect social and historical events and traditions.

GCSE

The GCSE course involves solo and ensemble performance, composition, and analysing historical and contemporary works in preparation for a written and listening examination.

A LEVEL

Candidates study a more extensive variety of historical works, involving analysing and appraising at a higher level, alongside compositional study and aural work. At this stage they will also perform a recital. All girls are encouraged to extend their music studies through the provision of theory clinics and aural clubs. Practical students preparing for their external music grades are also provided with opportunities to work with an accompanist prior to their examination.

Music within the co-curriculum

Around 200 girls access the music department through a diverse range of co-curricular clubs which meet during lunch or after school.
