

We're hiring!

Join our awesome team!

Production Controller

BL is home for creative, focused and imaginative people who deeply care about the brands we collaborate with. Leading with our consultative approach, evolved from our core values and belief in engagement and partnership, we couple expertise with creativity and technology to help brands engage with their audiences.

We are on a journey of significant and lasting change throughout the business. We are now looking for a Production Controller to join and organise our immense and wonderful team. Yes, you need to have experience within the print industry and a proven technical and scheduling background, but what's most important is your attitude, energy and determination to succeed. We all feel we are achieving great things at BL, we want you to join us and expand upon our success. This exciting challenge is yours to lead on, bring ideas to the table for sustainable change, turn your ambition into reality. With our inclusive culture, we will provide the environment, tools, and passion for you to thrive.

Interested? Want to know more? Well, get in contact with us, pay us a visit, check out our cool facility and listen to our vision for the future of our business and industry.

Techy Stuff:

We have all the latest print tech, LED litho, conventional litho, digital presses with all the latest embellishments (metallics, clear, white, fluorescent ink), Flat bed wide format, automated cutting tables, in-house finishing and direct mail. Our very own creative design & tech team. Newly refurbished building with a wonderful client experience area. But most of all – A passionate, authentic team of lovely humans.

Benefits include everything you would expect from a forward-thinking company.
